Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-17, 44, 48-52, 55, and 60-62, drawn to a method of implanting a pressure transducer, classified in class 128, subclass 898.
- II. Claims 18-33, 45-47, 53, 54, 56, and 57, drawn to a blood pressure measuring system, classified in class 600, subclass 486.
- III. Claims 34-43 and 58, drawn to a method of diagnosing or monitoring congestive heart failure, classified in class 600, subclass 500.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the apparatus could be used in a different method, such as in a method of monitoring blood pressure.

Inventions I and III are related to each other in that they are two methods useable together. Inventions I and III distinct from each other in that both have separate utility independent of the other and do not require the other invention for their use. In addition, Invention I may be used to implant transducers for other methods, such as a method of monitoring pressure in the heart.

Inventions II and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the apparatus can be used for a different method, such as a method of monitoring blood pressure.

A telephone call was made to Mr. Cheung Leung on August 9, 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
